

MISSIONARY SPOTLIGHT

Ed Thompson

PRESIDENT OF LOGOI MINISTRIES

- 1) What's book is on your nightstand right now? "New Living Translation" Bible, and my "One Year Book of Psalms" (Tyndale House) a daily devotional that was my Dad's. It even includes notes he jotted down and earmarks of his favorite Psalms. Also "The Prodigal God" by Tim Keller; and "Havana Storm" by Clive Cussler, my current "escape" book.
- 2) Tell us one interesting fact about you. You mean like growing up with a real pet monkey or swimming with manatees or donating two knees to the Wheaton College football program? One thing that comes to mind is that I won a nation-wide Gospel Music singing contest when I was 17 years old earning my first recording contract.

EQUIPPING PASTORS AND CHURCH LEADERS

- 3) What's your favorite food in the country in which your organization ministers? There is no better food in all the world than Cuban food. My favorite is "vaca frita con plátanos maduros y arroz y frijoles negros."
- 4) What are some specific prayer requests for LOGOI and the countries it serves? Our LOGOI family, which spreads over 40 countries, is to be "spiritual first-responders" in their communities. Please pray for those first responders as they navigate living in a third world country, during COVID-19, with limited resources. Pray they would be encouraged in their faith and they would bring hope and grace to a hurting and lost world.
